

LPS 100 Spot Remover

This new and different spot remover is non-flammable, pleasantly scented, free from chlorinated solvents, colorless, easy to use yet efficient. LPS 100 removes difficult spots and stains. This product works very satisfactory when used as directed on old or new spots, oil, fats, creams, make-up, lipstick, face cream, chocolate, marmalade, liqueur, coffee, grass, water, animal fats, stamp pad ink, typewriter ribbon smears, crayons, shoe polish and floor wax.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE:

For water stains, water rings, beverages, liqueur, juice, coffee, etc., apply LPS 100 cold and work in lightly with a soft brush and scrub. Then place a towel on top of the stain and step on towel causing stain to be blotted up. For grease, oil and creams, always scrape off deposits first. For fingernail polish, gum, candy, chocolate, tar and other difficult stains, bring LPS 100 to a boil and apply using general directions. On pet stains, scoop up fecal matter and apply LPS 100 as directed above. Repeat if necessary. Pet stains can usually be removed easily in cotton and synthetic carpets if attention is given 6 months after stain has occurred.

Do not use on wool carpets, oriental rugs, silk or velvet. Hair oil, Vaseline and other grease spots on sofas are removed by using LPS 100 cold and follow the above directions.

Additional Information

LPS 100 is an industrial strength carpet and upholstery spot remover designed to help the floor care professional eliminate the toughest spots and stains. Carpets in hotels, convention centers, museums, office buildings and other public facilities get a great deal more use and abuse. In these areas carpet spot cleaning is done on a daily basis and the faster and more effective the product is the less time this task takes each day. LPS 100 is so fast and easy to use that hours of labor can be saved each week. Another concern is that a cleaner used on carpet everyday or every week needs to be safe to use and safe on the carpet itself. LPS 100 is the ideal carpet spot remover to be used in any institutional application.
